

SHARE VANCOUVER ISLAND

2 DAYS IN TOFINO

DAY 1 Full-day in Tofino

Take a 90-minute ferry sailing on the MV Coho from Port Angeles, WA to downtown Victoria, BC, and drive 'up-island' approximately 4.5 hours to Tofino and spend the evening at the accommodation of your choice.

Head straight to Wolf in the Fog for a specialty cocktail and sit at a table with a view of Clayoquot Sound or at the impressive bar for a meal prepared by Chef Nick Nutting and the "Wolf Pack".

Check-in to your accommodation or campsite and fall asleep to the sound of the ocean's waves or to ... the absolute silence surrounding you.

DAY ONE

Sleep in. You're now on what's known as "Tofino Time", and anything goes.

Start your day with breakfast at a Tofino landmark. The Common Loaf Bake Shop has been serving wholesome foods for over 30 years. Sit on the second floor and enjoy the view down to the First Street Dock.

What's SUP? Take a stand-up paddle board lesson and tour with Tofino Paddle Surf from Tofino surf champ Cath Bruhwiler and her instructors, right on the calm shores of MacKenzie Beach.

Peel off that wetsuit and get your fill of fish and chips (or seafood gumbo) at Wildside Grill or experience the now-legendary fare, including the fish taco, at the original Tacofino.

Head to Tofino's centre and walk the Tonquin Trail, down to treasured Tonquin Beach. Be sure to check your Tide Guide, as you'll want to explore this small beach at low tide.

How is the day going by so quickly? Pick up some high-quality take-out at Chef Tim May's RedCan Gourmet or right next door for some fine meats and cheese at Picnic Charcuterie, paired with a brew or two from Tofino Brewing Company.

Settle into your room (or suite, or cabin, or campsite!) and enjoy a Tofino sunset with your #madeintofino meal.

DAY 2 Full-day in Tofino

Head into town and get your morning fix (like the “Bro Nut”, breakfast on a donut) at Rhino Coffee House or a made-with-love breakfast at Schooner Restaurant.

Walk to the Atleo Air dock and take a 15-minute flight over Clayoquot Sound. You won’t believe your eyes! Or, stay grounded and take a cultural canoe tour with T’ashii Paddle School.

Visit Ocean Outfitters in The Shore on Main Street and enjoy a coffee beverage from their sleek bar as you plan your walk around tiny Tofino.

Explore the shops and sights of Campbell Street as you head to lunch at SoBo (don’t miss the polenta fries) or the Sea Shanty, with a terrific view of Tofino’s working harbour.

Surf’s up! Time for your surf lesson. Take your pick of super surf schools, like Pacific Surf School or the all-female Surf Sister Surf School. A three hour lesson includes your gear rental, theory on the beach and time in the water.

Return to your accommodation and rinse off the salt water, maybe with some Sea Wench Naturals soap, made in small batches on an island near Tofino.

Get your post-surf dinner at Tofino classic, Shelter Restaurant or at the small but mighty Kuma, serving Japanese-inspired comfort food.

The time is right for a beach fire – light yours on Chesterman or MacKenzie Beach. Alternately, check out eventsintofino.com to see if there’s live music tonight.

In the high season, drive back to the MV Coho ferry terminal in Victoria to make the 7:30pm sailing back to Port Angeles. Make sure to check the ferry schedule while planning your trip!

#ShareVI • @sharevancouverisland • @mvcoho • #YourTofino • @tourismtofino